DORSEY FAILS TO GET PARDON

Alexandria Negro's Appeal Is Refused by Governor Stuart.

SNEED MUST REMAIN.

Pinchot Fails to Procure Pardon For Convict—Dorsey, Pines and Johnson Serving Life Sentences.

Richmond, Va, April 14.—The Governor refused to pardon Eugene Dorsey, an Alexandria negro, serving a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of an artist, Walter Schultz, on the night of March 6, 1909. A negro named Smith was executed for this murder, but the sentences of Dorsey, Pines and Johnson, accomplices, were commuted by Governor Mann to life imprisonment. Gerald Stratton, a member of the state penitentiary board, has interested himself in the case of Dorsey, and presented the papers to the Governor.

Although backed by a petition from Gifford Pinchot, former chief Forester in the United States Department of Agriculture, and more recently active leader in the Progressive party, Governor Stuart yesterday declined to pardon Sherman Sneed, serving two years in the state penitentiary for grand larceny. Sneed is a colored man, and was convicted in the Hustings Court of the city of Richmond. It appears that his mother was at one time charwoman at the Forestry office in Washington, and she interested Mr. Pinchot in the case.

The Governor granted a pardon to Bettie Lee, colored sentenced to one year in the penitentiary by the Hustings Court of the city of Lynchburg, for larceny. She had served about half of her time and the pardon was recommended by Judge Christian, who presided at the trial, and by Commonwealth's Attorney Yancey, who prosecuted.

Notwithstanding the personal application of John P. Branch, Bernard Lewis, George Bryan, and Davis Bottom, Governor Stuart declined a pardon in the case of Clerence E. Woodward, serving a sentence of ten years in the penitentiary from Newport News for criminal assault. He had served about seven years of his term, and the members of his family have been quite active in securing the sympathies of those who sought his release.

The Governor refused the petition for William Scranage, now serving a sentence of eighteen years in the state penitentiary for a murder committed in King George county. He had been in prison about six years. The petition was presented by C. W. Throckmorton.

A pardon was refused to W. W. Weymouth, now serving a sentence of twelve months on the country roads from the city of Norfolk for selling cocaine.

A pordon was refused William Lee, colored, sentenced to six months in the Richmond city jail in default of bond, for tresspassing on the property of St. Andrews' School. The case was tried in the police court, where suspicious circumstances in connection with the trespass and the previous character of the prisoner led to the justice requiring bond in the sum of $100, which Lee was unable to give. He appealed to the Hustings Court, where the trial court was confirmed.

Slays Man at Dinner.

New York, April 14.—While sitting at the dinner table with his wife, three children, and two men boarders, Frank Lanzaro, of New Cassel, L. I., was shot dead. The deed was committed by an unknown person, who stood just outside the dining room window and in back of his victim.

A rifle of large caliber was used. The front of Lanzaro's face was blown away, he having turned his head sidewise as the assassin fired.

Lanzaro expected to go to Italy in a short time.

NEWS OF THE DAY

President Daniel Sullivan, representing five unions of Calumet, Mich., in the Michigan copper district of the Western Federation of Miners, yesterday officially declared the great copper strike off, following a referendum vote of the miners yesterday. The figures of the referendum vote have not yet been compiled, but officials say the miners voted to call the strike off at a ratio of about 3 1-2 to 1. Military rule in the Southern Colorado coal region ceased today, when Governor Amons issued an order wtihdrawing all troops that have been in that section since the coal miners' strike was called last September.

Although there has been no formal announcement from the White House of the date for the wedding of Secretary McAdoo and Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of the President and Mrs. Wilson, friends who are in a position to know, say Friday, May 8, has been tentatively selected. The ceremony is expected to be private, Mr. McAdoo's colleagues in the cabinet being practically the only guests outside of the two families.

Going suddenly insane, a petty officer of the native branch of the British army yesterday killed three men and mortally wounded four others in Peshwar, British India, before he was shot dead by one of his own men.

Joseph De Franko and George Lobart are dead, and Mrs. De Franko, mother of Joseph, probably was fatally wounded as the result of a shooting affray early yeserday in the miners' quarters of Boswell, near Johnstown, Pa. Seven suspects have been arrested.

An April blizzard struck Montreal, Quebec, yesterday. There was a heavy fall of snow and the wind broke a number of windows. The municipal electric lighting system was partially destroyed.

WENDENBURG IN RING.

State Senator Will Oppose Montague For Congress.

Richmond, Va., April 14.—State Senator Louis O. Wendenburg announced last night his candidacy for Congress from the Third Congressional District, in opposition to former Governor Andrew Jackson Montague, who is offering for-re-election. A congressional primary will be held on Tuesday, June 16. Entries for the race close at noon tomorrow. Mr. Wendenburg has had the matter under consideration for some weeks, and only reached a final determination after a conferene with a number of friends last night. He will file his notice of candidacy with E. L. C. Scott, chairman of the District Democratic Committee, this morning, and deposit with the State Treasurer an assessment equal to 5 per cent of the first year's salary of a congressman, $375.

Congressman Montague came to Richmond last night from Washington, where Congress has been in almost continuous session since he took office on March 4th, 1913. He will file his entrance notice and assessment as a candidate to succeed himself today.

The third congressonal district is composed of the cities of Richmond and Williamsburg and the counties of Henrico, Goochland, Chesterfield, New Kent, Hanover, King William, James City and Charles City, James City counties and the city of Williamsburg.

Mr. Wendenburg is an attorney of recognized ability. He was for several terms Commonwealth's Attorney for Henrico county, and has since been engaged in some of the most widely known criminal cases tried in this section of the country. At the request of the Chesterfield county authorities some years ago, he took charge of the prosecution of Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., and his successful handling of that case won for him widespread applause.

Mr. Wendenburg is now serving his first term in the State Senate. He has been prominent in securing legislation to simplify procedure in the courts and changes in the labor laws. In the recent session he made an able, though unsuccessful fight against the passage of the enabling act, and was the leader in the Senate of the fight for a bill to prevent the annexation of outlying territory to Richmond.

DAGO FRANK TALKS AT THE LAST HOUR

HELPED PLAN CRIME.

Vallon, Gyp the Blood, and Lefty Louie Fired Fatal Shots—Whitey's Gun Missed Fire.

Albany, N. Y., April 14.—The actual murder of Herman Rosenthal, for which the four gunmen were executed yesterday morning at Sing Sing, was committed by Harry Vallon, "Gyp the Blood" and "Lefty Louie," according to the confession made by "Dago Frank" Cirofici before he was led to the chair. This confession was made public last night by State Superintendent of Prisons John B. Riley, after Governor Glynn had read it.

The pleadings of the mother and sister of Dago Frank, and the hope of the young Italian, induced the confession. It came too late, however, and indicated that Frank was equally guilty with the others, and for these reasons it failed to save him. Fear that terrible consequences would result from the confession, and horror of impending death, caused Cirofici to collapse when he ended his recital.

Cirofici would have confessed several days ago but for the fact that he had been terrorized by the other three gunmen with threats of death to his mother and sister if he told anything. The gunmen were fearful lest he should tell, and communicated to him these threats, between the cells in the death house.

New York, April 14.—"Dago Frank" Cirofici's dying confession as to the sensational murder of Gambler Herman Rosethal will aid materially in sending former Police Lieut. Charles Becker to the chair as the master mind in the slaughter plot, according to the view of District Attorney Whitman expressed today.

Whitman declared that in no essential detail had Cirofici's antemortem statement contradicted the stories of Webber, Vallon, and the other informers, and he said it had almost absolutely confirmed the story of the tragedy told by "Bald Jack" Rose the principal alleged gobetween for Becker and the gunmen who slew.

Tomorrow the district attorney will move to have Becker's second trial set for the first Monday in May.

WILL HEAR ARGUMENT.

Supreme Court to Settle West Virginia Debt Question.

Washington, April 14.—Agreement was reached here in the Supreme Court of the United States that the court would on next Wednesday hear argument in the case of Virginia against West Virginia, as to why the decision of the court rendered about two years ago, decreeing that Virginia was entitled to receive from West Virginia the sum of $7,000,000 should not be reduced to $2,000,000

This is an old story to those who have followed the efforts of the Old Dominion to have West Virginia pay part of the lond-standing debt which she rightfully owes.

About four or five years ago former Congressman Charles E. Littlefield, of Maine, was appointed a special commissioner to take testimony in the case. After laborious work he made his report to the court and that body later on decreed that Virginia was due the sum of $7,000,000, but left the amount of interest to be settled between the parties. Just here there came the stumbling block. West Virginia claims that she owes no interest, and but a small part of the principal. After the court has heard the matter Wednesday it is assumed that a decision of such a character as will be final will be rendered and that West Virginia will then have to pay Virginia what she should have paid her years ago.

RICHMOND PROTESTS.

Sends Letters to Senators and Representatives.

Richmond, Va, April 14.—Richmond is naturally protesting against the campaign being waged by the people of Baltimore for a reopening of the regional bank decision of the Organization committee.

Each member of the House and Senate has received from the Richmond Reserve Bank Committee a five-page letter, supplementing the brief submitted by the capital city to the Organization committee when the fight was still on.

The letter shows reasons why Richmond is the logical place for the bank.

The Richmond letter is, in part, as follows:

"It is difficult, we believe, to establish a strong zone in the South outside of the zone we have mapped out, with due regard to convenience and trade relations, and yet the south is such a rapidly developing section that within a few years, if not at present, it can justly claim and its interest may demand another federal bank.

"The state of Alabama, with its iron and steel interests, must within a few years become second only to Pennsylvania in those interests.

"The northern half of West Virginia, the District of Columbia, and Maryland might, we believe, with benefit in the general interest, be included in the zone to be served by a branch bank in Baltimore, since the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad ties that section intimately with Baltimore, just as the railroads in the one presented tie the states together in that zone.

"Transactions of banks in that section with the parent bank might be carried on entirely through the Baltimore branch which could beyond question serve that city and section with complete efficiency and to advantage, although the whole section is within 12 hours' communication with Richmond "The zone as a whole, would, of course, be greatly strengthened financially.

"About $3,000,000 in capital and $9,000,000 in deposits would be added to the Federal bank.

"The banks in the entire zone mapped out by us would, we believe, be overwhelmingly in favor of it, with Richmond as the location of the federal reserve bank.

"Part of the minority of banks in the zone which did not vote for Richmond, appeared to favor Baltimore only because they believed that the inclsion of that region would strengthen the zone financially, while they recognized the superior advantages and convenience of Richmond as a location, and the more intimate and extensive relation of Richmond to the zone, Richmond also having the great additional advantage of being one banking day nearer to a large majority of the banks in the zone, an economic consideration in itself of such importance as to be conclusive."

"Geo. J. Seay."

ASSAILANT CAPTURED.

Robert Carroll, Who Shot Deputy Sheriff Hall in Jail.

Jonesville, Va., April 14.—Robert Carroll, who shot down Deputy Sheriff Edward Hall in the streets here on March 30th, and made his escape while Hall was firing at him, was captured by the police at Barboursville, Ky., on Friday, and lodged in jail here Sunday night by Sheriff Robbins, of this county, who went to Barboursville to identify and receive the prisoner after being notified of his capture.

Carroll has been at large since the shooting. He had no money and had been "hoboing" trains. After having gone as far west as Illinois he found that he was unable to get provisions and came back to Kentucky. He was recognized when he got off a freight train in the railroad yards at Barboursville and arrested. Sheriff Robbins of this county, had offered $100 reward for Carroll's capture.

Edward Hall, the wounded deputy sheriff, is still living and it is now believed that he will recover, though little hopes were entertained for him for several days.

Charles Ketron, who is charged with killing David Wolfe, near Rose Hill, in this county, and who has been in jail for some time, was today admitted to bail, his bond being fixed at $5,000.

MEXICAN CRISIS IS AGAIN ACUTE

Eventualities Anticipated in Washington During Next Twenty-Four Hours.

HUERTA'S DEFIANCE.

Conference of Cabinet Ministers Held Today—United States Preparing to Meet Issue.

Washington, April 14.—Intense excitement prevailed in Administration circles this morning regarding Mexican affairs. All signs pointed to some vigorous action to be taken by the United States in Mexico within the next forty-eight hours. The situation at Tampico hangs in the balance.

John Lind conferred with President Wilson at 10 o'clock. But before this conference took place there was another of even greater significance. Rear Admiral Blue, chief of the Bureau of Navigation and Acting Secretary of the Navy, was called into hurried conference with Secretary of State Bryan and Mr. Lind at the State Department. Over this conference hung an air of extreme gravity. When it broke up Mr. Lind and the Secretary of State, accompanied by Cone Johnson, solicitor of the State Department, hurried to the White House.

In order that greater secrecy might surround the meeting between the President and his envoy, this conference was held in the library of the executive mansion.

Belief is strong now that Huerta has decided to defy the United States, and refuses to salute the Stars and Stripes. In reparation for the insult to the flag at Tampico, the Government of the United States is prepared to meet the issue. The whole situation hangs on a hair balance.

MONCURE RESIGNS SEAT.

Special Election to be Held in Thirteenth District in November.

Richmond, Va., April 14.— State Senator R. C. L. Moncure presented his resignation as a member of the State Senate to Governor Stuart yesterday. Mr. Moncure was recently appointed collector of internal revenue for the Eastern District of Virginia. He was elected to the State Senate from the Thirteenth Senatorial District, composed of the counties of Spotsylvania, Stafford and Louisa and the city of Fredericksburg. Mr. Moncure makes his home at Salmouth, in Stafford county.

Governor Stuart indicated that he would issue a writ for a special election to fill the vacancy for the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, the date of the regular fall election. It is anticipitated that prior to that time the party authorities will arrange a district primary.

Candidates mentioned up to this time are C. O'Conor Goolrick, and Delegate R. Lindsay Gordon, of Louisa.

GARTER MAY SPLIT CHURCH.

Congregation Divided Even Though Investigators Cleared Pastor.

Lockport, Ill., April 14.—The unbuckling of a garter and the question of how the garter came unbuckled has stirred up a tempest in the Congregational Church and threatens to divide the membership into two factions. A formal hearing with a board of seven trustees sitting in solemn dignity and conducting an inquiry into the causes of the unfastening of the circlet supporting the stocking of Miss Lucille Clark, a 17-year-old member of the church and attendant at the Sunday School, resulted in a verdict by a vote of 5 to 2 that the Rev. Charles H. Byles, pastor of the church, was not guilty.

Two women were members of the church jury, and both voted in their belief that the Rev. Dr. Byles had nothing to do with unfastening the garter.

BOSTON SUBURB HOSTELRY BURNS

Seven Persons Perish in Spectacular Blaze at Early Hour.

ONE INMATE MISSING.

Person Who Gave Alarm Failed to Pull Hook—Loss Placed at One Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Boston, Mass., April 14.—Seven persons met death and another is missing as the result of a savage fire which raged through the fashionable Hotel Melvin in Allston early today and trapped the inmates almost in their beds. The flames surged up through the thirty kitchenette apartments with inconceivable rapidity and drove others to small balconies, whence fear forced them to leap to death or injury on the pavement below.

The dead:
Bemis, Mrs. E. G.
Beharrell, Mrs. F. C., sister of Mrs. Bemis.
Power, J. Raymond, wife and two-year-old son.
Shackford, Mrs. Alice.
Another unidentified woman.
The missing—Irene Hazel.
The injured: Mrs. Robert Adams, C. W. Rogers, Minnie E. Reed.

The fire was one of the most spectacular in the history of Boston apartment house horrors. The flames spread so rapidly that none of the inmates had time to remove any of their possessions or even to warn the others.

Many leaping from bed at the crackling of flames and the rush of smoke, ran panic-stricken to the stairs, only to find them hopelessly blocked.

Horrified spectators on the outside could see men and women screaming piteously for help from the balconies, their figures silhoueted against the surging flames behind.

In the midst of the general horror, a rope of sheets was thrown out of the fourth story window and a woman's form was seen to trust itself to it.

Hand by hand she let herself down to safety, falling unconscious at the bottom. It was Mrs. Robert Adams.

Then Mrs. Edith Bemis endeavored to follow. She lost her hold when only just started and fell to the pavement below, turning over in her fall and crushing her skull. Many others jumped or were rescued by firemen.

Not for two hours were the firemen able to force their way into the furnace like building. Then on the fifth floor were found the bodies of a man, woman and child charred almost beyond recognition, but finally identified as J. Raymond Power and family. Three more bodies, Mrs. Beharrell, Mrs. Shackford and an unidentified woman, were found on the fourth floor and lowered to the street.

The loss of life would have been small, it is thought, but for the oversight of a person who went to ring in the alarm. This person opened the door of the box, but neglected to pull down the hook. The mistake was discovered ten minutes afterward, and a second call sent in.

The damage is estimated at $100,000.

NEGROES ENGAGE IN ROW

Pistols and Bottles Brought Into Requisition—Terrorize Public School

Considerable excitement was caused in the vicinity of Princess and Alfred streets about 1:30 o'clock this afternoon by a fight among negroes, during which pistols were discharged. Chief Goods, Sergeant Scott and Officers Bell, Wilkinson, and Campbell, were soon on the scene and brought the fight to a close. They succeeded in arresting Wesley and Mitchell Watkins, two brothers, but the other sengaged in the rioutous proceedings managed to escape.

According to the brothers, who are employed at the Potomac Railroad Yards, they were near a saloon in the northeastern section of the city when they were attacked by Alexandria negroes, one of whom, they alleged, used a beer bottle as a cudgel. A running fight followed westward on Princess street, when Mitchell Watkins fearing he and his brother would be killed, drew a pistol and began firing. When the participants in the row reached Alfred street they started north, and Wesley and Mitchell Watkins took refuge in the Hallowell school house (colored.) The Alexandria negroes followed closely in their wake, when pistols were discharged, to the consternation of teachers and scholars.

By this time the officers were on the heels of the rioters, and they pulled Mitchell Watkins from the rafters where he had taken refuge. He and his brother were conducted to the station house.

Although a number of shots were exchanged, no one was injured so far as can be learned. The neighborhood of the disorder was greatly alarmed and for the time there were constant calls over the telephone for officers.

SUICIDE OF E. P. HOLCOMBE.

Former Alexandrian Shoots Himself In Washington Yesterday Afternoon.

Ernest Prosser Holcombe, 53 years old, chief supervisor in the Indian service of the Interior Department, at the Denver office, and who was connected some years ago with the Washington office of the general service, was found dead in his room in the National Hotel, in Washington, yesterday afternoon, with a bullet through his head and a pistol at his side. Coroner Nevitt, who made an investigation, issued a certificate of suicide.

Last Thursday Mr. Holcombe went to Washington from Florida on official duties.

His wife, Mrs. Susie Holcombe, is at Denver, with her five children.

A sister of Mr. Holcombe, Miss Elizabeth Holcombe lives at the Riggs Apartments in Washington.

Friends of Mr. Holcombe say he had been in poor health and it is believed despondency on that account cased him to take his life.

Mr. Holcombe was a native of Alexandria, and a brother of J. G. Holcombe, who was a few years ago City Engineer of Alexandria, and of Allen Gales Holcombe.

Women's New Suits of Black Taffeta

Many women desire a black suit for spring; so we have endeavored to keep these styles exceptionally complete. Those seeking the best in workmanship, fitting, and modishness will recognize the advantage of selection here.

Three new models are shown in styles that have just been received, and offer an opportunity to obtain an exceptionally pretty suit at such reasonable price.

One suit is made with spade back, the fullness caught by an inverted plait effect formed with tailor's crow feet at the waist line. The skirt is made in the new bouffant effect, with taffeta covered buttons down the front to bottom. Price $35.00

Another model has peplum back, the fullness plaited front and back and caught with tiny frogs. Three-quarter sleeves are trimmed with dainty ruching, and the coat has collar and fancy crepe. A double tunic skirt in cutaway effect finishes this charming suit. Price $35.00

The model with collarless coat—one that has already been approved by our patrons—is shown with three-quarter sleeves, having two cuffs, one of black ruffled taffeta, the other of shadow lace. The skirt is made with single tunic, a double tunic effect being formed by the shirred belt on back of coat. Price $35.00

FORTY- NINTH ANNIVERSARY.

Forty-nine years have passed away since Abraham Lincoln, war President of the United States, was murdered by John Wilkes Booth in Ford's Theatre, Washington, while Lincoln and his wife were witnessing the play of "The American Cousin." It was on a Good Friday night, when people in both sections of the country were rejoicing at the return of the dove of peace after an absence of four years from our shores. Bellona had virtually taken her flight on the 9th instant, when General Robert E. Lee, realizing the futility of shedding more blood in a cause then seen to be hopeless, had an interview with General Grant at which terms for an immediate cessation of hostilities had been arranged.

Lincoln had aged considerably under the four years' strain through which he had passed, and the followers of the gray, after having endured many hardships in their unflinching faith and devotion to their great commander, had stacked their arms at his suggestion.

On the day preceding the night on whch the misguided Booth carried out his part of a terrible plot to remove the heads of the nation a monster parade was given in Alexandria. All the federal soldiers in this city and vicinity helped to swell the pageant and in addition, a civic procession added an interesting feature to the turnout.

The afternoon was generally observed as a holiday, and relatives of the Alexandrians who had been members of the Confederate army were filled with hopes of the early appearance of those who had survived the clash of war.

There was an illumination at night as the last act in the general rejoicing, and Alexandrians retired unmindful of the fact that they were to be startled next morning by the news that the President of the United States had been slain. Although within a short distance of the capital city, the great mass of residents of this city knew nothing of the assassination until next morning, as there were no telephones in those days, nor were trips made by the steamboats between the two cities after dark. No steam passenger trains were operated in those days, the government only using the road running to Washington.

Lincoln was the first President of the United States to become the victim of an assassin, although an attempt upon the life of Andrew Jackson had been made years before by a crazy man. Since Lincoln paid one of the debts of greatness two other chief magistrates have fallen by the hands of assassins. Garfield was the victim of a crank who wanted to get his name in history and feigned lunacy, and McKinley was killed by an enemy of law and order while holding a reception at the Buffalo Fair.

The United States has made much history since Abraham Lincoln passed off the scene. A vexatious reconstruction period was followed by the readmission of the Southern States to the federal union, the south was later humiliated by carpetbag and bayonet rule, force bills and other unwise procedures, and nineteen years elapsed before she was able to inaugurate a President of her choice.

The dismal clouds have long since been dissipated, and a democrat is again presiding over the destinies of the country, and he a Virginian native and the manner born.

"BILLY" SUNDAY'S PAY.

Baseball Evangelist Liberally Rewarded at Wilkesbarre, Pa., Says Man at N. Y. Meeting.

New York, April 14.—Twenty-four thousand dollars was the amount subscribed for Billy Sunday, the baseball evangelist in Wilkesbarre as a reward for his revivalist campaign in that city. This amount was collected in one day.

This information was elicited from Thomas Atherton, a lawyer of Wilkesbarre, who was on the finance committee of the campaign, following a series of questions from a member of the audience which attended the meeting in the Marble Collegiate Church, at 29th street and Fifth Avenue yesterday. The meeting was for the purpose of "creating" a demand that Billy Sunday conduct a campaign in this city. Both Mr. Atherton and Dr. Maitland Alexander, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Pittsburgh, spoke eulogistically of the ability of Sunday to make converts, and each touched very lightly on the collection end of the question until they were questioned after their addresses.

"This was the most humiliating part of the campaign,' 'declared Mr. Atherton, "and I felt greatly humiliated when the appeal for the free collection was made. I understand from Dr. Alexander that this method has now been changed.

NEWS OF THE OLD DOMINION

SUICIDE OF A TAILOR.

M. A. Turner, Leaves Letter Revealing Tortures of His Soul.

Charlottesville, Va., April 14.—M. A. Turner, aged forty years, a transient employed at various times at local tailoring establishments, came to Charlottesville ten days ago from Lynchburg, and in a fit of despondency took a dose of poison and died on Saturday night, April 4, at the University Hospital, where he was rushed for treatment. As no relatives claimed his body, he was interred on the following Tuesday afternoon in the Tailors' Union section in Oak Hill Cemetery.

While cleaning up the morgue at a local undertaking establishment the janitor came across the following letter which had fallen from the dead man's clothes:

"April 2 1914.

"Good-bye, everybody. I am taking my life. My brain is so sick and tired. I am a physical wreck and without funds, and no place to stay. I have tried all my life to get along, but have failed at everything.

"On the night of May 18, 1903, I married the prettiest and sweetest girl in the world—Mrs. George Hase. She had an awfully sweet, good little boy, and oh! how she loved him. He is still living, and has a good job in Richmond. My poor wife died of consumption on February 16, 1914. I told her I would join her in a short while and I as good as my word when can be. I left Richmond two days before the poor girl died. I had been there five months, out of a job, and had to beg on the streets to get something to eat. The last two nights I was in Richmond I slept in the depot, and that made me sick, so I hoboed to Charlottesville and remained a couple of days with friends, who gave the fare to Lynchburg. While on the car I was stricken with pneumonia, so I was sent to the hospital, where I stayed nine weeks. I left there yesterday and came to Charlottesville. I told a lie to get a quarter from Charlie Wood. I wanted to buy poison.

"I was born at West Point, Ga., July 16, 1875, and I have been in the clutches of ill fortune as long as I remember. Now, please have this letter put in te paper, and also notify George Hase, Blanche Mundy and Otto Hase.

"Oh, my poo , tortured soul. Farewell! farewell!

"M. A. TURNER."

WORK ON NEW LIGHTHOUSE.

Foundation at Thimble Shoals Light Will be Ready Within Fortnight.

Hampton, Va., April 14.—Work on the new Thimble Shoal Lighthouse, despite the handicap that the severe weather of the past two months offered, has progressed finely and the foundation, which is 18 feet above the water will be completed in the next week or ten days. This makes the actual foundation 48 feet over all, it being 15 feet under the bed of the bay, 15 feet to the top of the water at high mark and 18 feet above the water, its present attitude. Work will begun at once on superstructure or the lighthouse proper. When completed Thimble Shoal light will be equipped with all of the modern improvements in lighting and the reflectors for the lamps will be of considerably increased radiative power throwing a discernable beam of light for twenty-five miles. The light will alternate red and white automatically. Mr. G. L. Mayo, United States government inspector under whose supervision the lighthouse is being constructed has taken several fine photographs of the different stages of the construction, some of them being interior views of the immense caissons used to surround the cement foundation. Mr. Mayo is much pleased with the progress being made in the work and hopes with the approach of milder weather to have the entire structure completed by the early fall.

OPPOSED TO NECKTIES.

Annual Conference Closes in Rockingham—May Allow Baseball Games.

Harrisonburg, Va., April 14.—The annual conference of the Church of the Brethren of the Northern district of Virginia has closed its session at Greenmount, Rockingham county. The Rev. J. C. Miller, of Timberville, and the Rev. P. S. Thomas, of Harrisonburg, were elected delegates to the General Conference, which meets this year at Seattle, Wash.

The church is again having trouble with members departing from the dress regulations. The Dunkards are averse to neckties and any apparel considered display and ornamentation. Before expelling violators from the church it was decided to send a committee to the offending members and to remonstrate with them.

The baseball problem also came up. Two years ago baseball was eliminated from Bridgewater College, the leading Dunkard institution, and now the teachers there are anxious to have the national game reinstated. The matter was warmly discussed before the conference and finally referred to the trustees of the college. For a number of years Bridgewater College had the strongest team in the Valley.

Of the fifty-one children admitted to the Orphan's Home at Timberville, Rockingham county, thirty-four have been placed in private homes. Five have been returned to their homes.

Check the Symptoms of Lung Trouble

One of the many reasons why Lung Trouble is so difficult to fight is because the disease is often of a very flattering nature. The patient may look well, but in reality is fast losing strength by continued night sweats, fever and cough. These symptoms should be checked as quickly as possible. Eckman's Alterative is beneficial in checking fever and night sweats and it has brought about many complete recoveries. Read this case:—

305 W. 30th St., New York.

"Gentlemen: I am writing you this testimonial that others may know what your Alterative has done for me. Since I was a very young woman I was a sufferer from Bronchitis. I tried doctor after doctor, getting little or no benefit. Finally I had night sweats, weak spells and lost rapidly in weight and my doctor told me if they were not checked I would have Lung Trouble. Miss Mary Kortmeer, who is a friend of mine, recovered after taking your Alterative and insisted that I try it. I am now, after two years, perfectly well, strong and healthy."

(Affidavit) MRS. ROSA VOELPEL.

Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

FOUNDERS DAY.

Birthday of Thomas Jefferson Celebrated at University of Virginia.

Charlottesville, Va., April 14.— The birthday of Thomas Jefferson, founder of the University of Virginia, was commemorated at the University yesterday.

The academic procession, headed by Dean James Morris Page, formed in the rotunda, and marched to Cabell Hall. President Edwin A. Alderman's greeting and message was read by Dean Page.

Dr. Alderman wrote in part:

"Democracy is the supreme need and the ultimate goal of all advancing society. A wiser and juster collective life is the end of all the strivings of democracy. In this splendid evolution a university, by the very law of its being, has assigned to it the task of enlightening, energizing, stimulating, guiding and ennobling this collective life.

"As the child of the consummate democrats of the modern era, as the chief intellectual accomplishment of the most distinguished of American commonwealths, this high task of guidance and enoblement to a new and sensitive social spirit is to be more and more the duty of the University of Virginia.

I pray and believe that, with increasing zeal, the University of Virginia will strive to possess itself of all the powers and avenues of service to the progressive life of its time in state and nation. It will and it ought to hold fast to the eternal values of its serene and honorable past, but it will and it ought to keep the future with the searchlight of sympathy and understanding, seeking opportunity to light and warm with its knowledge and protection the masses of men and women struggling in the shadows for the finer and juster issues of life."

Dean Page announced that President Alderman had won his fight for good health and would be back at his post in the fall.

The orator of the day was James M. Beck, of New York, former Assistant Attorney-General of the United States. He spoke on "The Scholar in Politics."

Before introducing Mr. Beck, Dean Page spoke on the distinctive characteristics of the present session, the 89th of the University. He said that 918 students were enrolled, an increase of 78 over last year. A characteristic of the session, Dean Page said, was the spirit with which the students are carrying out the principles of student self-government.

In the course of his address Mr. Beck paid tributes to Theodore Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson.

ECHOLS HEAD OF TAX BODY.

Staunton Senator Elected Chairman And Hill Montague is Named as Secretary.

Richmond, Apirl 14.—Selecting State Senator Edward Echols, of Staunton, as chairman, and Delegate Hill Montague, of Richmond, as secretary, the Virginia tax commission was formally organized yesterday afternoon. All ten members were present.

The members of the tax commission met in the courtroom of the corporation commission at 12:45 o'clock and Senator Echols was chosen as temporary chairman. On motion of Mr. Weaver, Mr. Echols was elected permanent chairman of the committee.

Dr. Page suggested that the secretary should be one of the members from Richmond. Senator Harman nominated Delegate Hill Montague as permanent secretary and he was unanimously chosen.

Dr. Page and Mr. Montague were appointed a committee to purchase such books and documents as would be necessary for use of the commission.

Senator Harman and Delegate Montague were appointed a committee to secure necessary quarters for the commission.

During the informal discussion that followed the organization of the commission, Dr. Page called attention to the fact that it would be necessary for the commission to work very hard and continuously as they were confronted with a gigantic proposition and were expected to make a report in about six months. He said other similar commissions usually had from eighteen months to two years to prepare their report and advocated the necessity of getting to work at once and keeping right after it all the time.
